I value a diversity of opinion in the media, so I am requestion that you LEAVE IN PLACE the laws limiting ownership and cross-ownership of media outlets. A single comapany should not be allowed to own television channels, newspapers, and radio station in my city or any city, and a single company should not be allowed to dominate the mational market either. Such domination by one company would restrict the diversity or opinion that it essential to a healthy democracy.